August Facts of the Day
Date	Fact	Source
1	On August 1, 1944, Anne Frank made her last entry in her diary. Three days later after 25 months of seclusion, Anne and her family were arrested along with two of the people who had helped shelter them.	http://www.history.com/this-day-in-history/8/4
2	In 1776, members of Congress affixed their signatures to a copy of the Declaration of Independence. Fifty-six congressional delegates in total signed the document, including some who were not present at the vote approving the declaration. The delegates signed by state from North to South.	http://www.history.com/this-day-in-history/8/2
3	In August 1936, Adolf Hitler's Nazi dictatorship hosted the Summer Olympics. Minimizing its anti-Semitic agenda and plans for expansion, the regime showcased the Games to present an image of a peaceful, tolerant Germany. After the Olympics, Germany's expansionism and the persecution of Jews and other "enemies of the state" accelerated, culminating in World War II and the Holocaust.	http://www.ushmm.org/museum/exhibit/online/olympics/detail.php
4	August 4th celebrates the inception of the oldest maritime service in the United States, the United States Coast Guard, established in 1790. The Coast Guard consists of armed forces whose responsibilities range from search and rescue to national defense.	www.defense.gov/AFD/military/coastgrd.html - Cached
5	In August 1964, civil rights workers, Michael Schwerner, Andrew Goodman, and James Chaney whose disappearance garnered national attention, were found dead in Mississippi. They hoped to organize civil rights efforts in heavily segregated Mississippi. The disappearance of the three men led to a massive FBI investigation that was code-named MIBURN, for "Mississippi Burning."	http://www.mississippiburning.org/

6	On this day in 1945, at 8:16 a.m., an American B-29 bomber, the Enola Gay, dropped the world's first atom bomb, over the city of Hiroshima. Approximately 80,000 people were killed as a direct result of the blast and another 35,000 are injured. At least another 60,000 died by the end of the year from the effects of the fallout.	http://www.history.com/this-day-in-history/8/6?catId=14
7	In 1782, General George Washington, the commander in chief of the Continental Army, created the "Badge for Military Merit," a decoration consisting of a purple, heart-shaped piece of silk, edged with silver, with the word Merit stitched across the face in silver. The badge was to be presented to soldiers for "any singularly meritorious action."
8	Richard Milhous Nixon announced on August 8, 1974 that he would resign as the 37th President of the United States. After two years of bitter public debate over the Watergate scandals. President Nixon bowed to pressures from the public and leaders of his party to become the first President in American history to resign.	http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-srv/national/longterm/watergate/articles/080974-3.htm
